

Empathy map

Use this framework to develop deep, shared understanding a empathy for other people. An empathy map helps describe aspects of a user's experience and pain points, to quickly understand your users' experi and mindset.

Build empathy

The information you add here should be representative of the observations and research you've done about your users.

